

Song title: Love Will Spread

Group 3: Kaitlin Gaedtke, Lauren Lalumiere, & Maisey Pierce

Musical form:

Historical Reference: Stonewall Riots in New York City (June 28th, 1969), the LGBT community against a police riot

A: Verse 1

a: What do you mean, what imperfections do you see?

a: Love doesn't recognize limit nor boundary, only that we're meant to be a: Love found me by chance, and I chose love with certainty

b: Because we're not man and wife, but love and love

A: Verse 2

a: The Beatles said it best, "All you need is love" a: But when I turn on the tv hate is all I hear of.

b: From right here in Orlando to all across the globe,

a: Fear has stopped change, all we do is look to above.

B: Chorus

a: Radiate self love, there's no need to hide,

a: Now is the time to show some pride,

a: Hopefully will one day all love will spread worldwide.

b: It's a feeling that we, one planet, cannot live without.

A: Verse 3

a: It's time to stand up, if this is your belief

a: Like the Stonewall Riots against the police

b: It's time to come together, no matter who you are a: We have to fight back and not accept defeat

B: Chorus

a: Radiate self love, there's no need to hide,

a: Now is the time to show some pride,

a: Hopefully will one day all love will spread worldwide.

b: It's a feeling that we, one planet, cannot live without.
